Ch. 14 Pre-Columbian America 300-1550

L -1 The Peoples of North America & Mesoamerica pg 322

During the last _____, a natural land bridge connected East Asia & North America (@Alaska). Early hunters followed _____ into North America this way & began to eventually settle into North & South America after many years.

They settled into civilizations the same way that people did in _____: by learning to farm. The Americas did not have as many animals to _____, (only the _____) but could survive from trapping animals, hunting, fishing, & farming.

Some Important Culture Group:

Hopewell

1) _____ along Mississippi River
2) Mound builders – _____

Iroquois

1) North east of Mississippi cultures
2) Lived in longhouses – _____ covered with bark _____. Housed about 12 families.
3) Men – _____
   Women – _____ crops "3 sisters": _____
4) Wars were _____ among the Iroquois until
5) Great Peace: _____ formed to settle differences.
6) Made up of all Clans: _____
   Clan Mother: _____ woman – they chose males of the _____ – to settle disagreements.

Great Plains & Southwest

Plains Indians

1) Located _____
2) Grew _____
3) Men hunted _____ in the summers – teamwork: _____
4) Buffalo provided – _____

Anasazi – S.West U.S.

1) Extensive _____ – channeled water to farm in the deserts
2) Pueblos – _____ structures for housing