

Initial Guess Sheet

How much do you think you need (after taxes) per month to live comfortably?

How much do you think the average person pays for TV services/subscriptions per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for food per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for clothing and entertainment per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for home insurance per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for internet/wireless services per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for rent/ mortgage per month?

Initial Guess Sheet

How much do you think the average person pays for taxes per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for their cell phone bill per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for electricity per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for toiletries per month?

How much do you think the average person pays for transportation per month?

On a scale of 1-5 (one being not really, 5 being very), how excited are you to move out and pay for ALL of the bills and expenses on your own? Tell me why!