

Kennedy & The New Frontier

Kennedy & The New Frontier

- Kennedy called his domestic program the _____
 - It mostly focused on helping the _____
- Republicans and Southern Democrats _____ most of these programs
 - But he was able to get some things accomplished in spite of the opposition

The Peace Corps

- One of Kennedy's most _____ programs
- An organization that sends Americans to _____ countries to help and provide various services
- This program was created to help provide _____ will for the US and abroad and to instill a _____ ethic in America's young adults

Alliance for Progress

- Helped developing _____ American countries economically
- Main purpose was to _____ the spread of Communism in Latin America

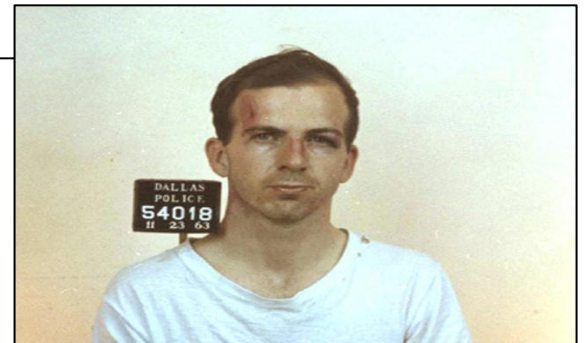

The Apollo Program

- Kennedy's most well known program was to put a man on the _____
- 1962: Kennedy challenged America to put a man on the moon by the _____ of the 1960s
- In 1969, NASA's _____ program was successful

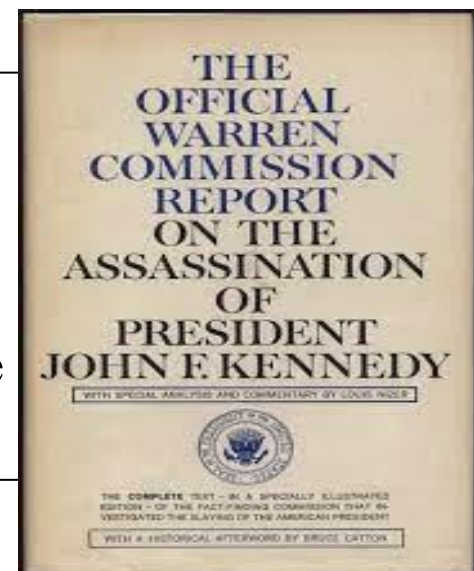

The Assassination

- Lee Harvey Oswald, a US Marine veteran was _____ with the assassination of President Kennedy
- Shortly after his arrest he was _____ by Jack Ruby, a Dallas nightclub owner
- After the assassination, Vice President Lyndon B Johnson will be sworn in as President

Warren Commission

- Created by President Lyndon B Johnson
- Headed by Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl _____
- They _____ JFK's assassination and ruled that Oswald was the lone killer in spite of numerous conspiracy theories

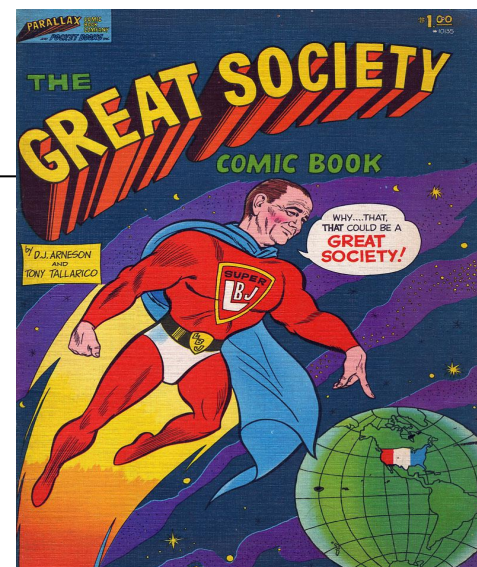

President Lyndon Baines Johnson

- Many fellow Southern Democrats will not support Johnson's stance on Civil Rights.
- He will be dedicated to African American Civil Rights
- With the help from sadness of JFK's death, LBJ will gain the passage of 2 Civil Rights Acts
- 1964 Civil Rights Act which will _____ public segregation
- 1965 Voting Rights Act which outlawed voting discrimination

GREAT SOCIETY

- LBJ saw himself as a _____ policy president.
- He wanted to make America a better-more fair place.
- He called this agenda "The Great Society"

Attempts at Universal Healthcare

- A big part of the Great Society was the _____ on poverty
- Healthcare accounted for much of low-income people's spending
- LBJ pushed two programs through Congress:
 - Medicare (healthcare for the elderly and disabled)
 - Medicaid (healthcare for the poor and disabled).

Other programs included:

- affordable _____ laws
- _____ care programs
- food stamp
- public educational programming

Vietnam Troubles

- In spite of Johnson's domestic achievements, LBJ did a poor job managing America's war in _____.
- America's youth _____ in big numbers chanting "Hey, Hey, LBJ, how many kids will you kill today?"
- When it came time for reelection in 1968, he chose _____ to run.

