

Name: _____ Class: _____

Australia Human Geo Notes

Australia and New Zealand

History and Government

- The _____ are the earliest inhabitants of Australia, and the _____ are New Zealand's indigenous population.
- Both countries were settled by _____, which had a disastrous impact on the indigenous peoples.
- Today, _____, or largely _____ within the British Empire, are constitutional monarchies with parliamentary systems.

Population Patterns

- Both countries have multicultural communities.
- About _____ percent of Australia's population is _____, and about _____ percent of New Zealand is _____.
- Most Australians live along the _____.
- New Zealand's urban populace lives mostly on the _____.
- Australia's _____ population is a concern.

Society and Culture Today

- Both countries blend _____, _____, and _____ elements into their cultures.
- _____ is the major language, and both countries offer high-quality education and health care.
- Relations between _____ populations and _____ descendants have improved with increased integration and better understanding.
- Roles for women are evolving as more women participate in the _____.

Economic Activities

- Australia and New Zealand have a _____.
- Both countries have well developed _____ sectors.
- Australia's diverse economy includes _____, _____, and industrial equipment, and is home to many natural _____ that invite significant foreign investment.
- New Zealand's main industries include _____, and the country benefits from many natural resources.

Top 10 Australian Travel:

10. Cairns - town of 150,00 near the _____ reef.
9. Adelaide - this town has lots of nice _____ and _____ for visitors.
8. Tasmania - - almost _____ of the this area is protected by the government to preserve its _____
7. Perth - is the nation's _____ largest city and the capital of _____ Australia.
6. Brisbane - this town is on of the _____ capitals of the world.
5. Kakabu National Park - the park features _____ ancient _____ art sites.
4. Melbourne - considered by many to be Australia's _____ of _____.
3. Great Barrier Reef - the reef stretches over _____ miles and is visible from _____.
2. Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park - this park is owned by native peoples and is famous for it _____ formations.
1. Sydney - ferries and cruise ships take visitors under the Sydney _____ Bridge and pasted the Sydney _____ House.

Where would you like to visit in Australia? Why?