

CHAPTER XVII

Atlantic Revolutions & their Echoes

CHAPTER LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- To make students aware of the number and diversity of Atlantic revolutions in the 18th & 19th centuries
- *To explore the cross-pollination between revolutionary movements
- *To investigate the real impact of the Atlantic revolutions
- *To consider the broader long-term implications of the revolutionary movements for sweeping social change

KEY TERMS/PEOPLE/DATES/EVENTS

Abolitionist movement:

Creoles: (pron. KREE-ohls)

Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen:

Declaration of the Rights of Woman:

Estates General:

Freetown:

French Revolution:

Gens de couleur libres:

Haiti:

Haitian Revolution:

Hidalgo-Morelos rebellion: (pron. ee-DAHL-goe moh-RAY-lohs)

Latin American revolutions:

Louverture, Toussaint: (pron. too-SAN loo-ver-TOUR)

Maternal feminism:

Napoleon Bonaparte:

Nation:

Nationalism:

North American Revolution:

Petit blancs: (pron. pay-TEE blawnk)

Seneca Falls Conference:

Stanton, Elizabeth Cady:

Terror, the:

Third Estate:

Tupac Amaru: (pron. TOO-pahk ah-MAH-roo)